Make a Wish

December is a month full of magic and wishing so let's add a little sparkle to our writing! Close your eyes and make a wish...

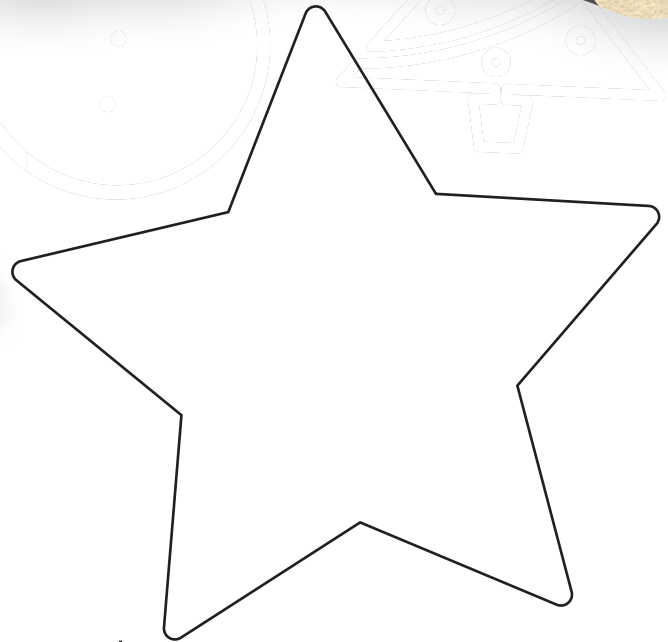

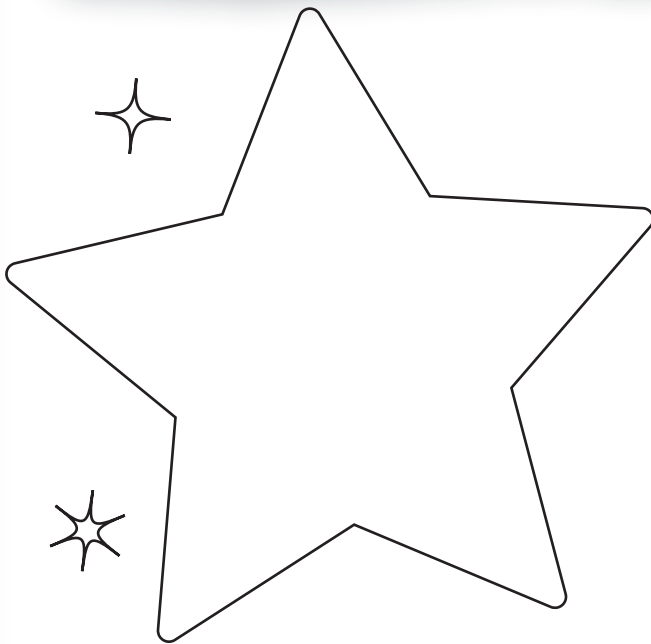

1

*Star light, star bright, first star I see tonight...
Fill the winter sky with your wishes.*

A wish for yourself...

A wish for someone else...

A wish for the planet...

2

Imagine a box full of dreams and wishes. The poet Kit Wright has a wonderful poem about this called The Magic Box. Listen here: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zkpmhyc>

What things would you put in your magic box? Think about a sight, a smell, a taste, a sound, a dream, and even a wish.

3

It's midnight on Christmas eve. The clock strikes twelve and with a fizz, whoosh and sparkle of light, a wish comes true. Whose wish is it? What did they wish for? What happens when they wake up on Christmas morning?

Write a story, a poem or a comic about what happens.
