

SUMMER WRITING CHALLENGE

DAY TWO

MUSIC

Today's writing challenge is going to be inspired by your favourite music. Begin your writing session by listening to a song or album by an artist you love. if you're stuck for inspiration, you can always try our playlist!

Click to listen

WHAT'S NEXT?

There are three different options for your writing challenge today. Choose as many as you like!

a) Write a review of an album by one of your favourite artists. You could read some music reviews from sites like The Guardian, NME and Teen Ink to give you some inspiration. Here's some helpful reviewing tips from The New York Times

b) Write a list of your top ten favourite songs by an artist or band you love. For each song, give a short explanation of what makes it special. For inspiration, here's a Taylor Swift top songs list.

c) Pick a line from one of your favorite songs, and identify the main emotion. Now write a scene in which we meet a character who is feeling that emotion and hears the song. Try to describe the music in such a vivid way that you will make the reader yearn to hear the song as well.

Share your music-inspired writing with us:

#SummerWritingChallenge2022

